

Kelvin Enfinger Jr.

Vice President – Partner

COMPANY ROLE<

>BIOGRAPHY

Years with Greenhut: 9+
Years in Industry: 25+

Kelvin serves as Vice President and Partner of Greenhut Construction. Kelvin is actively engaged in daily operations, business development, local political affairs, assists with preconstruction efforts as well as managing field construction, problem solving, training field personnel, ensuring quality, safety, scheduling and supervision over GCC personnel.

Kelvin Enfinger, is a lifelong native of Northwest Florida with deep roots in the construction industry, having been raised in a construction family. With 24 years of hands-on experience, Kelvin began his journey as a Tradesman, steadily expanding his expertise and understanding of the various facets of the construction business. Today, he is the Vice President and Partner of Greenhut Construction Company, Inc. in Pensacola, FL, where he continues to demonstrate his commitment to excellence and innovation in the industry.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS<

- Current Chair of the ABC of Florida Board
- Member of the ABC National Tech and Innovation Committee
- Member of the ABC National Free Enterprise Alliance Committee
- Board member of NAIOP Northwest Florida
- Board member of FloridaWest EDA
- Board member of BRACE serving Escambia County
- Member of the University of West Florida Construction Management Advisory Council
- Past Chair of the ABC North Florida Board in 2024
- Past Member of the ABC National Board in 2024

Throughout his career, Kelvin has been involved in the management and execution of over $650 million in construction projects spanning key sectors such as Retail, Healthcare, Aviation, and Education. This extensive involvement has equipped him with a unique understanding of the construction industry from both workforce and executive management perspectives. Kelvin firmly believes that this dual insight not only enhances his ability to navigate the complexities of each project but also positions him to provide invaluable guidance to the industry for the purposes of advancing the Construction sector and advancing the well-being of the hard-working men and women that are so valuable to implementing the vital projects we build in our communities.

Kelvin’s passion for the construction industry extends beyond his professional endeavors. He has been actively engaged in various leadership roles and committees, reflecting his dedication to fostering growth and innovation within the industry.